24 February 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Further to strike action that took place on 1st February 2023, I am writing to update you that the next strike day on 2nd March 2023 will continue to go ahead as planned whilst the Department for Education and Teaching Unions continue their discussions.

In partnership with our school staff and the wider Trust, we continue to review and assess if we can keep the school open during any strike action. In order to open the school, we have to be certain that we can appropriately safeguard the children and ensure there are enough staff to provide a safe learning environment.

We have followed the advice and guidance issued by the Department for Education and updated our risk assessments based on the last strike day to assess whether the school can safely operate as normal under strike circumstances.

I am writing to inform you that following these assessments, I am writing to inform you that only the following classes will be open on Thursday, 2 March 2023:

- Year 6 – Eucalyptus and Willow Classes
- Nursery

The expectation is that all children in these classes will be in school on 2 March 2023, on time to avoid an unauthorised absence mark. Children in year 6 should use the KS1 playground gate to access the school on this day.

No other Year groups or classes will be open on this day.

We are taking this decision only for 2nd March 2023, for the other strike days proposed on 15th and 16th March 2023 we will continue to assess and review the circumstances before making any decisions. This will be shared with you as soon as we are able.

Please note, we will not be providing online learning on this day, but if you are able to, you can support your children with the following activities:

- ✓ Enjoy a book or two with your child and upload on Showbie if this is something you would like to share.
- ✓ Write a book review about your favourite book. If it's linked to one of our house authors you can even earn a token.
